

Breakout room instructions:

Once you are in the breakout room please go to the course website and find under “in-course materials” the speaking drills.

You will have 5 minutes to speak through the drills. One of you will be the clinician, and the other the patient. After you have gone through all the drills, switch roles so each of you has a turn as patient.