RELEVANT CONFLICT OF INTEREST DISCLOSURES

CNS Disclosure Policy

The Congress of Neurological Surgeons controls the content and production of this CME activity and attempts to ensure the presentation of balanced, objective information. In accordance with the Standards for Integrity and Independence in Accredited Continuing Education established by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), speakers are asked to disclose all relationships they have with ineligible companies* over the previous 24 months which may be related to the content of their lecture. Speakers who have disclosed a relationship with an ineligible company whose products may be relevant to their presentation are listed below.

Any planner, reviewer, or faculty member not on the disclosure list has reported they have nothing to disclose.

All relevant financial relationships listed for these individuals have been mitigated.

**Ineligible companies are those whose primary business is producing, marketing, selling, re-selling, or distributing healthcare products used by or on patients. An ineligible company is not eligible for ACCME accreditation or participation in Joint Providership.*
